The Ministry has incurred an expenditure of Rs. 17488.56 crore during 2018-19 (as on 07.01.2019). The details of scheme-wise Budget Estimate and Revised Estimate are given at Annexure II.

Child Development

Well being of children is essential for the country's development as they constitute to the future human resource of the country. A major part of the India's population—around 158 million comprise of children in the age of 0-6 years (2011 Census). The Ministry of Women and Child Development is administering various schemes for the welfare, development and protection of children. The details are provided below:

Anganwadi Services (Under Umbrella Integrated Child Development Services Scheme)

The Anganwadi Services Scheme is one of the flagship programmes of the Government of India and represents one of the world's largest and unique programmes for early childhood care and development. It is the foremost symbol of the country's commitment towards its children and nursing mothers; a response to the challenge of providing pre-school non-formal education on one hand and breaking the vicious cycle of malnutrition, morbidity, reduced learning capacity and mortality on the other. The beneficiaries under the Scheme are children in the age group of 0-6 years, pregnant women and lactating mothers.

Objectives of the Scheme:

- to improve the nutritional and health status of children in the age-group 0-6 years;
- to lay the foundation for proper psychological, physical and social development of the child;
- to reduce the incidence of mortality, morbidity, malnutrition and school dropout;
- to achieve effective co-ordination of policy and implementation amongst the various departments to promote child development; and
- to enhance the capability of the mother to look after the normal health and nutritional needs of the child through proper nutrition and health education.

The Anganwadi Services Scheme offers a package of six services, viz. Supplementary Nutrition, Pre-School Non-Formal Education, Nutrition and Health Education, Immunization, Health Check-Up and Referral Services. The last three services are related to health and are provided by Ministry/Department of Health and Family Welfare through NRHM & Health System.

Under the revised Anganwadi Services, keeping in view the Prime Minister's vision for Swachh Bharat, two new components— Construction of toilets in AWCs and Provision of drinking water facilities in AWCs have also been introduced. Convergence is, one of the key features of the Anganwadi Services, enabling better governance in the delivery of the Scheme.

Under the revised Nutritional and Feeding norms (effective from February 2009) State Governments/UTs have been directed to provide 300 days of supplementary food to the beneficiaries in a year, which would entail giving more than one meal to the children from 3-6 years who come to AWCs. This includes morning snacks in the form of milk/banana/seasonal fruits followed by a hot cooked meal (HCM). For children below 3 years of age and pregnant and lactating mothers, age appropriate Take Home Rations (THRs) in the form of pre-mix/ready-to-eat food are provided. Besides, for severely underweight children in the age group of 6 months to 6 years, additional food items in the form of THR have been recommended.

The Government has promulgated the National Food Security Act, 2013. Sections - 4, 5, & 6 of the Act pertain to entitlements regarding nutritional support to pregnant and lactating mothers and children under the Anganwadi Services. Nutritional standards as per the schedule II of the Act are as follows:

S.No.	Categories	Types of meal	Calories (Kcal)	Protein (g)

3	Children (6 months to 6years) who are malnourished	Take Home Ration	800	20-25
4	Pregnant women and Lactating mothers	Take Home Ration	600	18-20

The number of operational AWCs/mini-AWCs increased from 13,04,611 in March, 2012 to 13,63,518 in September, 2018. Number of beneficiaries [Children (6 months to 6 years) and pregnant & lactating mothers] for supplementary nutrition reported 972.49 lakh in March, 2012 and 875.35 lakh in September, 2018. Number of beneficiaries [Children (3-6 years)] for pre-school education reported 358.22 lakh in March, 2012 and 319.66 lakh in September, 2018.

Financial Norms of Supplementary Nutrition under Anganwadi Services have been revised as under and would be effective from the date of notification issued by the respective States/UTs:

S. No.	Categories	Old Rates (In Rupees per day per beneficiary)	Revised Rates (In Rupees per day per beneficiary)

During the year 2018-19, an amount of Rs. 0.37 crores was disbursed under the scheme against the outlay of Rs. 30 crores (R.E.) as on 07.01.2019.

National Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) Policy

Ministry has formulated the National Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) Policy and the same has been approved and notified by the Government of India in the gazette on 12.10.2013. The Policy lays down the way forward for a comprehensive approach towards ensuring a sound foundation for survival, growth and development of the child with focus on care and early learning for every child. It recognizes the synergistic and interdependent relationship between the health, nutrition, psycho-social and emotional needs of the child. This would add impetus to the ECCE activities mentioned in the revised service package of Anganwadi Services.

Scheme for Adolescent Girls under the Umbrella ICDS Scheme

Scheme for Adolescent Girls, a Centrally-sponsored scheme was introduced in the year 2010-11 on a pilot basis in 205 districts across the country. The Government approved continuation of the Scheme for Adolescent Girls for out of school adolescent girls of age 11-14 years on 16.11.2017, for a period of one year i.e. up to 30.11.2018 which has later been approved upto 31.03.2019. Government also approved expansion and universalisation of the Scheme for Adolescent Girls in a phased manner i.e. in additional 303 districts in 2017-18 and in the remaining districts in 2018-19. - ii. Iron and Folic Acid (IFA) supplementation
- iii. Health check-up and Referral service
- iv. Nutrition & Health Education (NHE)
- v. Mainstreaming out of school girls to join formal schooling, bridge course/skill training
- vi. Life Skill Education, home management etc.
- vii. Counselling/Guidance on accessing public services.

Against the outlay (R.E.) of Rs. 250 crores for the year 2018-19, expenditure of Rs. 162.19 crores has been incurred (as of 07.01.2019).

Child Protection and Welfare

The Constitution of India places safety and well-being of children at the highest priority. Children constitute about 39% of the total population of India (Census 2011). It has been widely accepted by policy makers of our country that investments made for the survival, education, protection and overall well-being of children helps in breaking the intergenerational cycle of poverty and ensuring an inclusive growth for the country. In a vast country like India, children face multiple vulnerabilities in terms of accessing quality healthcare, education and child protection services. Moreover, new challenges are emerging every day, such as online exploitation of children, climate change and natural and man-made disasters which add to vulnerability of children. The Ministry of Women and Child Development has taken many initiatives to ensure safety and well-being of children.

IMPORTANT LAWS, SCHEMES AND PROGRAMMES FOR CARE AND PROTECTION OF CHILDREN

National Policy for Children (NPC), 2013 and National Plan of Action for Children 2016

The Government has adopted a new National Policy for Children (NPC, 2013 on 26th April, 2013). The Policy reaffirms the Government's commitment to protect the rights of all children in the country. It recognizes every person below the age of eighteen years as a child and that childhood is an integral part of life with a value of its own, and a long term, sustainable, multispectral, integrated and inclusive approach is necessary for the harmonious development and protection of children.

The National Plan of Action for children, 2016 was released on 24th January, 2017. As children's needs are multispectral, interconnected and require collective action, the plan aims at purposeful convergence and strong coordination across different sectors and levels of governance; active engagement and partnership with all stakeholders; setting up of a comprehensive and reliable knowledge base; provision of adequate resources; and sensitization and capacity development of all those who work for and with children.

It has also identified emerging and new areas of concern related to development and protection of Children. The stakeholders are expected to strategize and initiate programmes to meet these emerging concerns and vulnerabilities. The plan has also mapped district-wise vulnerabilities that children face; and this data is expected to feed into policies and programmes.

The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012

To deal with child abuse cases, the Government has brought in a special law – ‘The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012’. The Act has come into force with effect from 14th November, 2012 along with the rules framed there under. The Act defines a child as a person below the age of 18 years and provides protection to all the children from the offences of sexual assault, sexual harassment and pornography. An offence is treated as ‘aggravated’ when committed by a person in a position of trust or authority of child such as a member of security forces, public officer, public servant etc. The Act provides for establishment of Special Courts for trial of offences, keeping the best interest of the child as of paramount importance at every stage of the judicial process. The Act incorporates child friendly procedures for reporting, recording of evidence, investigation and trial of offences.

POCSO e-Box is an online complaint box for reporting child sexual abuse. The POCSO e-Box was also launched by Smt. Maneka Sanjay Gandhi, the Minister for Women and Child Development in New Delhi on 26.8.2016. POCSO e-Box is an online complaint management system for easy and direct reporting of sexual offences against children and timely action against the offenders under the POCSO Act, 2012.

Consequent upon introduction of the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 2018, Section 42 of the POCSO Act, 2012 stands amended and therefore the quantum of punishment of rape cases of girls less than 16 years of age has been increased. Death penalty has also been introduced as an option in rape cases of girls below 12 years of age.

Child Budgeting

Barring some specific initiatives, concerns of children often remain absent in the larger development narratives of the country. Hence, it is essential to maintain a reasonable focus on the sizeable child population of the country to provide opportunities and facilities as envisaged in the Constitution of India; to invest in the young population of the country at the right time and in the right manner; to enable the country harvest demographic dividends and to provide for their due and fair share within the development agenda of the country.

Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015

The Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 is the primary legislation for ensuring the safety, security, dignity and well-being of children. The Act provides for protection of children in need of care and protection and those in conflict with law by catering to their basic needs through proper care, protection, development, treatment and social re-integration. It puts into place standards to secure the best interest of child. Under the Act, several new offences committed against children which were so far not adequately covered under any other law, are included; such as, sale and procurement of children for any purpose including illegal adoption, corporal punishment in child care institutions, use of child by militant groups, offences against disabled children, kidnapping and abduction of children.

CHILD PROTECTION SERVICES

For effective implementation of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015, the Ministry of Women and Child Development is implementing a Centrally Sponsored Scheme i.e. Child Protection Services Scheme (erstwhile ICPS) since 2009-10 through the State Governments/UT Administrations on predefined cost sharing financial pattern. The objectives of the Scheme are to contribute to the improvement in the well-being of children in difficult circumstances, as well as, reduction of vulnerabilities to situation and actions that leads to abuse, neglect, exploitation, abandonment and separation of children from parent. The Scheme aims to spread awareness regarding the ways and means to prevent all children from child abuse of any kind including child sexual abuse. Further, it aims to create a safety net of dedicated structures, services and personnel for the protection of children from abuse and exploitation and provide social protection, by focusing on (a) improved access to quality child protection services; (b) raised public awareness about the reality of child rights, situation and physical and social protection in India; (c) clearly articulated responsibilities and enforced accountability for child protection (d) established and functional structures at all level for delivery of statutory and support services to children in difficult circumstances; (e) operational evidence based monitoring and evaluation.

CPS provides preventive, statutory care and rehabilitation services to children who are in need of care and protection and those in conflict with law as defined under the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 and any other vulnerable child. The JJ Act stresses upon the need for encouraging the mainstreaming of orphan, abandoned and surrendered children. It lays emphasis upon the transmission of children in need of care and protection from institutional care to non-institutional care and acknowledges that every child has a right to family. Therefore, rehabilitation and reintegration of children in need of care and protection and children in conflict with law is an important objective of this scheme along with the provision for adequate institutional care in the country. The scheme acknowledges the necessity for strengthening preventive action to secure welfare of children. It aims to provide ground level support to children and their care givers; raising awareness; and building capacities.

In the year 2018-19, the Ministry has assisted 1508 Homes, 335 Specialized Adoption Agencies (SAAs) and 267 Open Shelters through State Governments/UT Administrations. Apart from the institutional services, it has been reported by the State Governments/UT Administrations that so far 719 Child Welfare Committees and 709 Juvenile Justice Boards have been set up across the country.

In the financial year, 2018-19, proposals of 36 States/UTs and ChildLine India Foundation have been considered by the inter-ministerial Project Approval Board (PAB), set up for appraisal and approval of the financial proposals received under the Scheme. In 2018-19, Rs. 505.82 crores have been sanctioned and released (as on 07.01.2019) under the Scheme as against the total outlay of Rs. 925 crores.

Girl Child

Beti Bachao Beti Padhao Scheme (Celebrate Girl Child, Enable her Education) was launched on 22nd January, 2015 at Panipat, Haryana as a comprehensive programme to address the declining Child Sex Ratio (CSR) and related issues of empowerment of women over a life-cycle continuum. The CSR, defined as number of girls per 1000 boys in the age group of 0-6 years, declined sharply from 976 in 1961 to 918 in Census 2011. Declining CSR reflects pre-birth discrimination manifested through gender biased sex selection and post birth discrimination against girls (in terms of health care, nutrition and education opportunities). Prevalent social constructs such as strong 'Son Meta Preference', that discriminate against girls on the one hand, and the availability and misuse of diagnostic tools that enable sex determination on the other has posed serious challenge to survival, protection and empowerment of girl child.

Initially the scheme was implemented in 161 selected districts. Looking at encouraging trends in the 161 districts and the magnitude/criticality of the problem and its spread across the country; it was realized that no district can be left out of BBBP ambit if a real progress is to be made towards improvement in overall CSR. Accordingly, Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs has given its approval for expansion of Beti Bachao Beti Padhao with a proposed outlay of Rs. 1132.5 crore from 2017-18 to 2019-20, to be funded 100% by the Central Government.

Currently Beti Bachao Beti Padhao (BBBP) is being implemented on All India basis covering 640 districts (as per Census 2011) across the country. Out of 640 districts, 405 districts (161 old districts + 244 new districts) are covered under multi-sectoral activities along with Media Advocacy and the remaining 235 districts are covered under alert media advocacy & outreach activities only.

BBBP Scheme is a tri-ministerial initiative of Ministries of Women and Child Development, Health & Family Welfare and Human Resource Development with a focus on awareness and advocacy campaign for changing mindsets, multi-sectoral action in select districts, enabling girls' education and effective enforcement of Pre-Conception & Pre Natal Diagnostic Techniques (PC&PNDT) Act. The specific objectives of the scheme include preventing gender biased sex selective elimination; ensuring survival and protection of the girl child and ensuring education and participation of the girl child.

The BBBP programme has been well-received and favourable trends are visible in many districts. As per the HMIS data of MoHFW for 161 BBBP districts indicate that for the time period between April-March, 2015-16 & 2016-17, an improving trend in Sex Ratio at Birth (SRB) is visible in 104 districts, 119 districts have reported progress in first trimester registration against the reported Anti Natal Care registrations and 146 districts have reported improvement in institutional deliveries.

The transformative potential of BBBP could be assessed in the kind of local level innovative initiatives undertaken by District Administration in coordination with WCD, Health and Education departments. The multi- sectoral action initiatives in the districts have been mainly targeted towards engaging communities for change of mind set, promoting 100% institutional deliveries, maintaining village level record of birth and their exhibition in public places through Guddi Gudda Boards, birth registration, encouraging celebration of girl child, challenging son-centric rituals and reversing the social norms, re-enrollment drives for getting girls back to schools and campaigns to prevent child marriage. The plan scheme outlay for BBBP is Rs. 280.0 crores, against which Rs. 164.42 has been spent in the year 2018-19 (as on 07.01.2019).

Women Empowerment and Protection

The principle of gender equality is enshrined in the Indian Constitution. The Constitution not only grants equality to women, but also empowers the State to adopt measures of positive discrimination in favour of women to neutralize the cumulative socio-economic and political disadvantages faced by them. Women have fundamental rights to not be discriminated on the grounds of sex and get equal protection under the law. It also imposes a fundamental duty on every citizen to renounce the practices derogatory to the dignity of women.

Empowerment of women is a process that leads women to claim their rights to have access to equal opportunities in economic, cultural, social and political spheres of life and realise their full potential. This progress has to be accompanied by their freedom in decision making both within and outside their home with the ability to influence the direction of social change. The Ministry has taken a number of initiatives to empower women and to ensure their safety. These are detailed below.

DRAFT NATIONAL POLICY FOR WOMEN 2017

The Draft National Policy for Women (NPW) 2017 has been prepared keeping in view the socio economic changes that have occurred since the last policy formulation in 2001. Socially inclusive rights based approach for women provided under the Constitution on a life cycle continuum, forms the framework of the policy, which will guide various sectors to integrate the key principles of gender equality into their prevailing policies, strategies and program documents and enable the holistic empowerment of women.

The Draft envisions a society in which, women attain their full potential and are able to participate as equal partners in all spheres of life. The draft Policy addresses the diverse needs of women through identified priority areas: (i) Health including Food Security and Nutrition; (ii) Education; (iii) Economy (including agriculture, industry, labour, employment, NRI women, soft power, service sector, science and technology); (iv) Governance and Decision Making; (v) Violence Against Women; (vi) Enabling Environment (including housing, shelter and infrastructure, drinking water and sanitation, media and culture, sports and social security); and (vii) Environment and Climate Change.

The Draft Policy also prescribes operational strategies for implementation, these include framing of Action Plans at the national, state and local level; strengthening gender institutional architecture; enacting new legislations and reviewing/harmonizing legislations; engaging with stakeholders for advocacy and awareness generation; strengthening institutionalization of gender budgeting and creating an effective gender based data base. The policy formulation process has taken into consideration multi-stakeholder feedback- it was placed online to seek public comments through the MyGovportal and consultations were also held with various Ministries/Departments and States/UTs. In addition, recommendations from 5 regional consultations organized by NCW across the country were also considered. Over 15,000 crowd-sourced ideas have also been considered as part of the policy formulation process.

LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK FOR WOMEN

On the legal front, the Ministry has been active in ensuring the protection of law to the most vulnerable. Work is being carried out to ensure optimum implementation of laws for women.

Sexual Harassment at Workplace

The Sexual Harassment at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 covers all women, irrespective of their age or employment status and protects them against sexual harassment at all workplaces whether organized or unorganized. Students, apprentices, labourers, domestic workers and even women visiting an officer are included in the Act.

In order to ensure the effective implementation of the Act, the Ministry has developed an online complaint management system titled Sexual Harassment electronic-Box (SHe-Box) for registering complaints related to sexual harassment at workplace. SHe-Box portal offers the facility of making online complaints of sexual harassment at workplace to all women employees in the country, including all government and private employees.

Child Marriage

The Ministry has been taking action to end the practice of child marriage. The Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 punishes those who promote, perform and abet child marriage. The Ministry is working for the strict implementation of the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 by pursuing local administration to conduct preventive activities. Letters are regularly sent out to District Collectors to increase alertness to prevent underage marriages during festivals such as AkshayaTritiya/AkhaTeej. The prevention of child marriage and protection of the girl child is a prominent part of the National Plan of Action for Children, 2016

While illegal, child marriages are currently not automatically void, rather they are voidable at the option of the minor person in the marriage. An amendment has been proposed by the Ministry to the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 so as to make child marriages henceforth void ab initio or invalid in law. This would be an effective deterrent to the practice. In 2017, the Ministry also took up the issue for dichotomy between IPC Section 375 (rape) and the Protection of Children against Sexual Offences Act (POCSO), 2012. In accordance with this, a decision by the Hon'ble Supreme Court this year has criminalized sex between a man and his underage wife – a big success for the Ministry.

Draft Trafficking of Persons (Prevention, Protection & Rehabilitation) Bill, 2017

Presently, in India there is no comprehensive legislation for the prevention of trafficking and protection and rehabilitation of the victims of trafficking. In order to fill the existing gaps, Trafficking of Persons (Prevention, Protection and rehabilitation) Bill, 2017 was drafted by the Ministry to cover various aspects of trafficking by including various offences pertaining to trafficking and also for the prevention, protection and rehabilitation of victims of trafficking.

This was further placed on the website of the Ministry for comments and suggestions. Based on the suggestions received the Bill was modified and further discussed in four regional consultations held in Delhi, Kolkata, Chennai and Mumbai, with different stakeholders including non-governmental organisations. The suggestions were taken into consideration and the Bill was again modified. Thereafter as per approval of the Cabinet and assent of the President, the Bill 'Trafficking of Persons (Prevention, Protection & Rehabilitation) Bill, 2018' was introduced in the Lok Sabha and was passed by the House on 26th July 2018.

The Bill aims to prevent the trafficking of persons, to prosecute offenders and to provide care, protection and rehabilitation to the victims of trafficking. It provides for new offences with stringent punishment with fine, which are aggravated in nature and not addressed in existing laws. It also provides for timely disposal of cases and repatriation of victims as well as constitution of a Rehabilitation Fund for welfare and rehabilitation of victims.

Domestic Violence

The Ministry is working to ensure protection of women both inside and outside the home. The implementation of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act (PWDVA), 2005 is being pushed across the country. The Act recognizes the right of all women to live free from violence within the private sphere of their home. It also protects women in their natal homes as well as those live-in relationships, provided that such relationships are in the nature of marriage. The objective of the law is to prevent violence and provide immediate and emergency relief in case of such situations irrespective of the status of woman's relationship with the respondent. A media campaign in this regard was rolled out over television, radio and online mediums in 2018.

Dowry Prohibition

Recognizing the need to address the social evil of dowry, the Dowry Prohibition Act was enacted in 1961. By encouraging the implementation of this Act, the Ministry is working to bring an end to the practice of dowry. The Act defines dowry and penalizes the giving, taking or abetting the giving and taking of dowry. It also lays down a built-in implementation mechanism in the form of Dowry Prohibition Officers to ensure effective enforcement of the law. Multi-sectoral advocacy has been carried out to positively influence the mindsets of people and discourage them from giving and taking dowry. A radio, print, television and social media campaign in this regard was also rolled out in 2018.

Indecent Representation of Women

The Indecent Representation of Women Act, 1986 was enacted with the specific objective of prohibiting the indecent representation of women. It prohibits such representation in any form in any advertisement, publication, writing, painting or in any other manner and also prohibits selling, distribution, circulation of any books, pamphlets, and such other material containing indecent representation of women. Taking into consideration the advent of technological development, amendments to the Act have been proposed to cover audio-visual and digital content which contains indecent representation of women.

Gender Budgeting

Women constitute 49% of India's population¹, yet they lag behind men on many social indicators like health, education, economic opportunities, etc. and are placed at a more vulnerable position. To address these vulnerabilities, the Government of India has been committed to promote gender equality in all areas of development. This is evident in the legislative mandates and policy frameworks for gender equality, gender responsive schemes and programmes, as well as establishment of various institutions that aim at advancing women's empowerment. However, it was recognized that the way Government budgets allocate resources; it has the potential to transform gender inequalities. Looking at the huge potential of Government budgets to make positive changes in gender dimensions of society, Gender Budgeting was adopted by the Government of India as a budgetary strategy at the national level in 2005-06 with the introduction of the Gender Budget Statement as part of our national budget.

Gender Budgeting (GB) is not an accounting exercise but an ongoing process to ensure that the benefits of development reach women as much as men. In fact, Gender Budgeting, as an approach, is not confined to budgets alone; rather it covers analyzing various economic policies from the gender perspective. Gender Budgeting entails maintaining a gender perspective at various stages like programme/policy formulation, assessment of needs of target groups, review of existing policies and guidelines, allocation of resources, implementation of programmes, impact assessment, reprioritization of resources, etc. A gender responsive budget is the culmination of this process.

For Gender Budgeting in India, this decade is a significant one as it marks the completion of ten years of Gender Budgeting in India. This has thereby emphasized on the need for Governments to prioritize allocations for women thereby linking the policy and legal mandates on gender equality to requisite resource allocations for their implementation.

In 2004-05, the Ministry of Women and Child Development adopted 'Budgeting for Gender Equity' as a Mission Statement. Since then, the Ministry of Women and Child Development (MWCD) as the nodal agency for Gender Budgeting has been undertaking several initiatives for taking gender responsive planning and budgeting forward at the National and State and Local Levels.

The Ministry has been following a three pronged strategy to pursue the process of Gender Budgeting in the country:

- i. Placing emphasis on and advocating for setting up of gender budgeting structures/mechanisms in all Ministries/Departments of the Government;
- ii. Strengthening internal and external capacities and building expertise to undertake gender mainstreaming of policies/schemes/programmes; and
- iii. Facilitating Gender Budget analysis and performance/gender audit of existing programmes, which would then feed into addressing gaps and strengthening service delivery mechanisms.

During the year 2018-19, an amount Rs. 4.37 crore has been disbursed as on 07.01.2019.

Plan, Statistics and Research

Planning, implementation and monitoring of schemes/programmes/ policies requires efficient statistical system. To monitor the SDG and its associated targets, a National Indicator Framework (NIF) comprising of 306 national indicators has been developed in consultation with Central Ministry/Departments, States and other stakeholders such as UN Agencies and Civil Society. In this regard, the Statistics Bureau has been assigned to provide data for the indicators associated with the targets on SDG-1 'End Poverty in all its form everywhere' and SDG-5 'Achieve Gender equality and Empower all Women and Girls'.

They are also encouraged to undertake pilot projects/micro-studies focusing on the ongoing activities of the Ministry.

Public Grievances
